A DAINTY TOILET ARTICLE.

Every lady who desires to keep up her attractive appearance, while at the theater, attending receptions, when shopping, while traveling and on all occasions should carry in her purse a booklet of GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL BEAUTY LEAVES. This is a dainty little booklet of exquisitely perfumed powder leaves which are easily removed and applied to the skin. It is invaluable when the face becomes moist and flushed and is far superior to a powder puff as it does not spill and soil the clothes.
It removes dirt, soot and grease from the face, imparting a cool, delicate bloom to the complexion. Sent anywhere on receipt of Ten Cents in stamps or coin. P. T. HOPKINS, 37 Great Jones street, New York.

We are indebted again to the kindness of J. B. Moore, Esq., Postmaster at San Francisco, for a valuable bundle of papers from the United States, received by the steamer Carolina. Dates are to the first of April from New York, from which we give such extracts as we find room for this week.

DEATH OF HON. JOHN C. CALHOUN.

Washington, March 31.
The Hon. John Caldwell Calhoun is no more. He died this morning a few minutes past seven o'clock, and his funeral will take place on Tuesday next. His remains will be temporarily deposited in the Congressional Cemetery, previous to their removal, under the direction of the Senate, to South Carolina. There is none of his family here save his son.

The highest honors due to his long and eminent services and character, will be paid to his memory by both Houses of Congress, with whom all the branches of Government and citizens at large, will unite.

Gold Hunting.—An incident is related of an old man from Syracuse, N. Y., who had been taken sick at the mines out on the Sacramento, and who, having exhausted all his provisions, was in a most deplorable state. He went about from tent to tent among the miners to beg a mouthful to eat to keep him from starvation.—The miners, in scattering, which is considered the habits of their diggings. Entering a camp one day, the old man begged for a meal, and told his story of adversity. "Let's give him a chance," said the men; "he is an old man and is sick; what say you? let's help him out." "Well, agreed," replied the party. "Here, old man," said one of them, "you may have that spot ever yonder where you see that rock; so take your pick and go to work." The old man started out, and the first day realized the sum of sixty dollars. This gave him new hope, and his friends rejoiced with him at his good luck. The next day, however, the old man was unlucky, and did not realize a cent.—They told him to try again, however, and he "so" so. In picking over the rock, after the exertion of a whole day, the old man found what is called a "hen's nest," from which in one week he realized the handsome sum of $17,000. His friends told him he had better stop then, as he was old and go home. So he adopted their advice, and took the steamer at Chagres for New York. We hope the old gentleman may live to enjoy his good fortune.

NEW HEAD OF NAVAL ACADEMY

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 29.—Captain John Henry Gibbons, who has been appointed commander of the Naval Academy at Annapolis to succeed Captain John M. Bowyer, resigned, due to late being on duty at Washington as a member of the general board of the navy. He was formerly naval attaché of the American embassy at London. Only a few days prior to the announcement that Gibbons would succeed him, Captain Bowyer was directed by the secretary of the navy to write a letter of apology to a daughter of Professor Deers of Yale University for an alleged slighting remark made about her by someone connected with the academy while she was a guest at a recent hop there.

CAPT. JOHN H. GIBBONS

UNCLE SAM HAS EYES ON CASTRO
Warns Portugal Not to Permit Him to Organize Against Venezuela.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Former President Cipriano Castro of Venezuela has been treated at Lisbon by the State Department. He was there since May 15, having reached Portugal from a Spanish port, presumably Bilbao. On learning his whereabouts, the State Department called the Portuguese Government to attention with the fact that the United States had not changed its view respecting Castro, and that he should not be permitted to organize a filibustering expedition directed against the present government of Venezuela.
